STAT

Thank you for your letter of 1 August telling me about The Jeffersonians and suggesting that I might speak to this group.

I should like very much to accept. Unfortunately I am not able to commit myself to a specific date at this time. So long as Congress is in session, I shall not be able to plan on many outside activities. I may also take a trip abroad this fall.

In view of these uncertainties, would you be good enough to give me a chance to reconsider your kind invitation at some later date.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Mr. Dulles,

As a co-member of the Georgetown Presbyterian Church, and as a very junior colleague of yours, I am taking the liberty of writing to ask you if it would be possible for you to address the young adults group of our Church sometime this fall.

Our group, which numbers about 70, is called the Jeffersonians, and I have the honor to be their president.

Our meetings, which are most informal, are held on the first and third Tuesday of each month. We start with dinner - in the Balch Hall - at 7:15, and usually have a speaker, whose talk begins at approximately 8:15. We try to finish up, after a question period by 9:30.

Our first formal meeting after the summer recess will be on Tuesday, Sept. 20. The ensuing meetings of this year will be held on the Tuesdays of October 4th and 18th,
November 1st and 15th, and December 6th and 20th.

We realize, of course, the ubiquitous demands upon your time, but would feel most honored if you could address us, most informally, on any of the above dates — (or any other day which suits your convenience) — on a subject of your choosing.

It would be a very great pleasure to welcome you and Mrs. Dulles to one of our meetings.

Sincerely,

P.S. My father, [redacted]

introducing you at a Commercial Club dinner in Chicago several years ago.
His glowing words of you have heightened my hope that you can spare a few minutes for us.

Dear Mr. Dulles,

Thanks you for your very kind note in answer to my letter concerning the Jeffersonians. We appreciate, of course, the very pressing demands upon you.

If, sometime in the future, it should be possible for you to speak to our group, you would be a most welcome and honored guest.

Sincerely,
